

Travelling to Ardingly College

By Air: London Gatwick Airport is 10 miles away and has regular scheduled flights around the UK, Europe and International destinations. Heathrow, Luton and Stansted airports are also within easy reach via the M25 and M23.

By Rail: The nearest main line stations are Balcombe and Haywards Heath which are only a 10 minute taxi journey away and are both on the London to Brighton Railway line.

By Road: Ardingly College is located between Crawley and Haywards Heath close to the M23, A23 and A272, just 35 miles from London and 20 miles from Brighton, making it easily accessible via the UK road network.

From London: Join the southbound M23 and exit at Junction 10A. Take the first exit marked Balcombe B2036. Travel for 3 miles to Balcombe and turn right, opposite Balcombe Primary School, onto Haywards Heath Road. Take the second turning left onto Mill Lane and follow this road for 3 miles into Ardingly. Turn right onto College Road and the entrance for Ardingly College is on your right after 0.75 miles.

From Brighton: Follow the A23 for approximately 12 miles, leaving it at the sign marked Cuckfield and Haywards Heath, and join the A272. Remain on the A272 across two roundabouts, bypassing Cuckfield, and then across 3 further roundabouts to Haywards Heath. On entering the one way system take the second turning left onto The Broadway B2028. Travel to the roundabout and take the fifth exit onto Sydney Road. At the next roundabout take the second exit, still on B2028 and then turn left onto Summerhill Lane. Travel for 2.25 miles and the entrance for Ardingly College is on your left.

From the East & West: Take the A272 to Haywards Heath and enter the one way system. Take the second turning left onto The Broadway B2028. Travel to the roundabout and take the fifth exit onto Sydney Road. At the next roundabout take the second exit, still on B2028 and then turn left onto Summerhill Lane. Travel for 2.25 miles and the entrance for Ardingly College is on your left.
